

CLEAN COPY OF ABSTRACT

This patent relates to novel playing cards where each card has, associated with that card, indicia comprising a suit and a value, and games that can be played with those cards. When the novel cards are initially dealt, of the two indicia, only s the card's suit appears on each card. When the player selects a card, the indicia that appear on the card are both the card's suit and the card's value.
